Guidelines for Authors

Your Research Paper should follow following guidelines:

1. Abstract: Please write abstract of your paper within 100 words in which a brief description of your research paper should be given.

2. Keywords: The important word should be written so that your paper can be traced on internet on the basis of those words.

3. Introduction: Describe your problem and state your contribution to the solution of the problem. From the very start be very clear about what you will be arguing in your paper.

4. The Main Text: It has four parts.

The problem/Objective of the Study

First, clearly present the gist of your idea, what is the main problem/question that you are dealing with in this paper? What are the goals/objectives of your research? Why it is an interesting/significant problem?

Review of Literature

Move on elaborating your idea with example and comparison. You may refer to previous research done on the same topic/pattern and explain how your work differs from and contributes to the existing literature.

Concepts and Hypothesis

You may define the basic concepts that you frequently use in your paper, You should clearly state what your hypotheses are?

Research Design

Then explain your research methodology. What is your research base on/What kind of resources you have used. What is the universe of your study. What tools and techniques are used? Etc.

5. Findings: Describe the findings of your research paper. In other words what conclusion did you reach based on your research.

6. Conclusion: Briefly summarize the main text of your paper with findings. Put your suggestions if any.

7. Suggestion: Give suggestions based on your study.

8. Footnotes: All footnotes should be indicated by serial numbers in the text and literature cited should be detailed under Notes at the end of the chapter bearing corresponding number.

9. Reference: Place the reference at the end of manuscript following the footnotes. The list should mention only those sources actually cited in the text or notes. Author's name should be same as in the original source. More than one publication by the same authors should be listed in chronological ascending order. Following are some examples:
